

Autumn Packing Checklist

Chalet Dahai, Kandersteg

Less to pack. More time together.

What to pack

Layers

- ☐ Base layer top and bottom
- ☐ Fleece or warm mid-layer
- ☐ Waterproof jacket (not just water-resistant)
- ☐ Waterproof trousers

Rain gear, especially for kids

- ☐ Rain jacket
- ☐ Rain pants or a rain overall
- ☐ Rain boots

Footwear

- ☐ Sturdy shoes with good grip
- ☐ Warm, thick socks, plus a spare pair per day
- ☐ Grip-sole slippers or grip socks for kids indoors

Keeping warm

- ☐ Warm hat and gloves for everyone
- ☐ Scarf or neck warmer for cable car rides

For little ones

- ☐ Extra full change of clothes
- ☐ Stroller cover, if using a stroller
- ☐ Sun protection: hat and sunscreen, even in autumn

Good to have

- ☐ Headlamp or small torch
- ☐ Reusable water bottle (tap water is drinkable)
- ☐ Snacks prepped at home before you travel

Already at the chalet

So you don't need to pack it:

- Board games, cards, and books for evenings in
- Plenty of toys for everyone, from babies to older kids
- A kitchen for a home-cooked meal or warming up takeaway
- Tea and warm drinks
- Laundry, so you can wash, dry, and reuse clothes instead of overpacking
- A mudroom for storing and drying wet gear
- Blankets for cozy evenings
- Fresh tap water, ready to drink
- Kitchen basics: clingfilm, aluminium foil, and bags

Traveling with a dog?

- An extra blanket for a cozy sleep corner
- A water bowl, ready to fill
- A few dog snacks waiting
